Professional Amenities.

In looking over some old MS, books of the date of the middle of last century, we have come across the following controversy between two physicians, which may perhaps be acceptable to the readers of " Notes and Queries :"

DR. WYSTER TO DR. CHEYNE. "Tell me from whence, fat-headed Scot, Thou did'st thy system learn? From Hippocrate thou had'st it not, Nor Celcus, nor Pitcairn. "The we allow that milk is good,

And say'st same of grass. The one to babes is only food, The other for an ass. " Doctor, this one prescription try,

(My freedom, friend, forgive), Eat grass, reduce thy head and dye, And let thy patients live." ANSWER.

Doctor, my system's all my own, No tutor I pretend; My blunders hart myself alone, But thine thy dearest friend. . "Were you to milk and straw confin'd,

Perhaps you might regain your mind, And from your wit be free. "I can't, sir, your prescription try, But heartily forgive; 'Tis nat'ral you should wish me dye, Yt you yourself might live."

Much better might you be;

VARIETY.

A great many men are of opinion that a certain quantity of wine is good for a man. It is the uncertain quantity that hurts him.

"You ought to husband your coal more," said the charity woman. "I always dose. I J. M. WHITNEY, M. D., D. D. S. DENTAL OFFICE, FORT STREET. makes him sift ashes and pick the cinders." In a divorce suit in Iowa the wife's complaint was that her husband rubbed her nose with a A TTORNEY AT LAW.

nutmeg grater. The Judge said he never heard of a grater crime. Some people's ideas of religion are about as sensible as those of the woman who gave to a poor soldier who had lost both legs a tract on the sin The father of a St. Louis bride presented his son-in-law with 50,000 head of cattle. "Papa, dear," exclaimed his daughter when she heard of it, "that was so kind of you; Charley's awfully fond of oxtail soup." What city in France is a man about to visit when he goes to get married? He is going to Havre (have her). An old bachelor being asked the question promptly replied, " To Rouen"

A special telegram from Edison in New York to Punch in London, says: "Just discovered a method of lighting a drawing room by means of the electricity generated by a stick of scaling-wax and a tom-cat. Specifications by mail. Sell gas shares short."

"Etiquette" writes to the Journal of Commerce to know what is meant by a full dress ball. We think it was N. P. Willis who once said a full dress ball was an entertainment where the dresses began too late and did not leave off early

A good story is told of a New Haven colored preacher, who, when his church was out of commonion wine recently, called on a dealer to get more, and, on being asked what kind he wanted, DRS. F. H. ENDERS, & J. H. BEMISS, replied that " some ob de ladies ob de congregashun had expressed a preference for gin."

A Rutland lawyer, in referring to some prison ers, addressed the jury as follows: "I tell you their knees shook as shook the knees of Beltiheezer, when Paul said unto him : 'Thou art the man," And a Biddeford advocate, blushing at the conduct of his opponent's client, shouted in open court, " Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Jerusalem."

A clergyman said that he once visited a lady of his parish, who had just lost her husband, in order to offer consolation; and upon her earnest inquiries as to the reunion of families in heaven he strongly asserted his belief in that fact, and when she asked with anxiety whether any time must clapse before friends would be able to find each other in the next world, he emphatically said, "No! they will be united at once." He was thinking of the happiness of being able to offer the relief of such a faith, when she broke in upon his meditations by exclaiming sadly, "Well, his first wife has got him by this time!"

"This is an ice morning," said Pericles to Alcibiades with a grave smile. "Yaas!" replied Alcibi, with a grin of triumph, "and that's now name for it!" And then they shook hands and hawhawed over it till they criedjust as if they had not both read the puns long before in the tattered joke-books of the Lacedemonians .- Graphic.

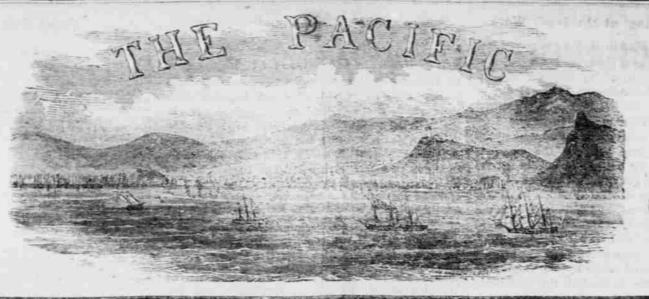

A widow, intending to succeed her husband in the management of a hotel, advertised that "the hotel will be kept by the widow of the landlord, Mr. Brown, who died last summer on a new and improved plan." A coroner's ver-Capt. Snow's Building. No. 20 Merchant St. Honolulu. ap27 1y dict read thus: " The deceased came to his death by excessive drinking, producing apoplexy in the mind of the jury." A country paper says: " A child was run over by a wagon three years old, and cross-eyed, with pantalets on."

He had been sitting still so long that the mother expected to find him asleep when she looked around and asked : " Well, Harry, what are you thinking of?" " Ma, are we very rich?" he solemnly inquired. By way of reply, "In one way we are," she said, "your father says he values me at three million dollars, you at two millions, and the baby at one." closed the conversation on that subject, but next morning as Harry was getting on his overcoat, he examined the new patch which had been added, and coolly observed: "Well, think father had better sell off about half of you or the whole of the baby and get the rest of us some decent duds to put on."-Detroit Free Press.

MPORTERS AND COMMISSION MER-Sympathy always indicates a certain refinement of nature, but it is sometimes curiously misplaced. The Siamese twins were on exhibition, and among the spectators was an Irishman who had an original way of looking at things. He told a friend who was standing at his side that the most fortunate thing in the world was Company.
unhis Fire Proof Buildings, Kaahumanu and Queen Sts. 1y that they were brothers, because if they had been strangers to each other they would never have been able to get on together.

can't read myself." It was a snow shoveller on Walnut street that spoke, as he handed over an THE BANK OF CALIFORNIA, SAN FRANCISCO, envelope, enclosing a telegram, which read: "Nashville, January 9, 1879. I will arrive at Louisville by the three o'clock train this evening. Jerry A. Tatt." "Will you read it again, sir?" asked the snow shoveller. It was read again. "You said it was signed Jerry A. Tatt." "That was the name." "Please read it once more." His request was complied with. "It goes right straight along—just them ere words, without any hitchin' or stumblin?" "Just that way." "It can't be Jerry, then, it can't be Jerry," he mused. " Jerry couldn't say that many words without stutterin' all to pieces, to save his life. Smart fellow trying to fool me, but I am too smart for him, I am." Louisville Courier-Journal.

There is a certain want of logical sequence in a boy's mind which is appalling. After being told that he ought always to spit out the skins of grapes because they were unhealthy, he came across the story of Jonah. He reasoned that if the whale would swallow one man be would not object to another, and that he was probably in the habit of exercising the throat muscles whenever an opportunity presented. Still his mind lingered on the grapes, and in some unfortunate way he got the two subjects mixed, for he said to his I M PORTERS OF AND DEALERS IN CHINA GOODS ed on the grapes, and in some unfortunate way mother, "Do you think the whale always spits of all descriptions, and to all kinds of Dry Goods. Also, constantly on hand, a superior quality of Hawaiian Rice.
